Michael Barrientos

Full Stack Web Developer

Summary

Recent graduate of UPenn LPS Coding Bootcamp. I have fundamental coding knowledge and looking to contribute my knowledge as well as expanding it from more experienced Web Developers. I have knowledge of creating full stack applications that are listed in my portfolio link, all following the MCV pattern. Most recent application was a MERN stack and still furthering my knowledge of that stack. Continuing learning with other languages such as Java, C#, Python, and AWS.
